1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a review of the literature on the topic of the role of the state in the development of the economy. It is found that the state has played a significant role in the development of the economy in many countries, particularly in the case of developing countries. The state has been able to mobilize resources, provide infrastructure, and create a favorable environment for investment and growth. However, the state has also been criticized for its inefficiency, corruption, and lack of transparency. The paper argues that the state should continue to play a role in the development of the economy, but it should be reformed to make it more efficient and transparent.

Wallace Victor Captain of Company H. having applied for a Certificate on which to base an application for leave of absence I certify that I have examined the same and find him suffering from Chronic Intestinal Diarrhoea, together with debility, and that he has been suffering from the same for at least six weeks, and in consequence thereof it is unfit for duty. and I further give my opinion that this officer will be fit for duty in a few weeks, and that days of absence for which change of duty is necessary is necessary.

Capt. A. O. Boyle

U. S. A.

Sir

My Justice in addressing you is to solicit a favor, that is, to use your influence in having me stationed at Louisville for a while. I have been in constant service for fifteen months in the field and am completely worn out. You have a business acquaintance with me and if a fitting opportunity occurs you will know whether it would be suitable for me. Our Regiment is well known to Gen Boyle, being the only one with him at present that served under him at Shiloh. Perhaps he would detach me if a vacancy occurred. I see no objection to my being on his staff and that position is filled by me if it would not be deemed intrusive I should like to make application for that position if not filled.

It is unnecessary to mention the services performed by Bull's all being it is enough to say the 13th was in it all. And we all need rest, if you would confer a favor upon one who esteems you a friend, by endeavoring to procure me a little quiet & rest, you would ever receive my earnest thanks. There are a number of Offices perhaps filled by men who have seen little service and would like to join their regiments - to engage in the present Campaign and flush their words with glory, if so, one who has heard the grand rounds would willingly make the exchange. A favorable response to this im-portunate letter would shed more genial rays over this abridged face of mine than has appeared there for some time.

Very Respectfully

Yours &c &c &c

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, in such a case, dictates that慎重 should be exercised; and that no step should be undertaken which is fraught with the danger of inviting the interference of the British arms, or the arms of any other foreign power, in the contest between the colonies and the mother country.

In the name of the People of the United States, we do hereby declare, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this fourth day of July, 1776.

Secretary
